

Minutes of the Open Meeting 13 March 2006

1. Welcome and introduction

James Campbell (CUSU LBGT Chair) introduced the meeting and welcomed everyone.

2. Apologies from the Exec

Kaur Adamson, Luke Andrews, Mike Horridge, Ingrid

3. Corrections to the minutes of the last open meeting

None

4. Matters arising from the minutes of the last meeting

None

5. Announcements by the Executive

Jordan Holland (President) announced and explained the changes that have been made to Unique@twentytwo and discussed arrangements that have been put in place with Precious, the company that has taken over from CUSU Ents.

6. Questions to the Executive

Alistair Fair (Pembroke): Requested more information about Precious and asked why the changes had been made.

- Jordan elaborated on his previous explanation and stated that the change over should not make much difference to the evening.

Olly Glover (Fitzwilliam): Stated that he was under the impression that the Unique brand was to be retained and Precious only used occasionally, he questioned why the name of the night had changed to Precious@twentytwo.

- Jordan responded that Precious wanted to rename the night, if people do not like this idea then it will be changed back, James Campbell (Chair) has emailed Dan and Helene (Precious) to clarify the name and is awaiting a response.

Sarah (Homerton): Are people still aware that Precious@twentytwo is an LGBT night, considering the change of name?

- Jordan responded that the night is still being advertised on Listings and the website, as previously.

Carol Johnston (Jesus): Asked the meeting attendees for a general indication of whether they preferred the name Precious or Unique.

- General discussion indicated that attendees preferred the name Unique and the continuity that it gave. James Campbell and Jordan Holland will speak to Precious and ask them to retain the name Unique.

7. Ordinary motions

None

8. Emergency motions

None